Forming, Nourishing and Sustaining Leaders of Catholic Education

2nd National Catholic CEO/CSEL Conference

Monday 7th to Tuesday 8th November 2022 (24 hours)
£380 per delegate (including full board accommodation)

As part of the Formatio national strategy for leadership and governance to form, nourish and sustain leaders of Catholic education, we have been working to identify ways of supporting this unique group of Catholic leaders of education.

This conference will provide CMAT CEOs/CSEs and their deputies, with the opportunity for professional and faith formation and time for reflection. This year, we hope that diocesan directors of education will also take the opportunity to attend the conference along with Chairs of CMAT boards.

The conference will take place at the beautiful Stanbrook Abbey Hotel in Worcester (Stanbrook Abbey Hotel | Luxury Hotel in Worcester | Hand Picked Hotels) and will take the form of a 24-hour residential event, featuring sessions on the professional and spiritual challenges of Catholic Multi Academy Trust leadership. Confirmed speakers include:

Rt Rev Bishop Alan Williams sm, Bishop of Brentwood & Bishops' Conference Formatio representative
Dame Rachel de Souza DBE, Children's Commissioner for England
Dominic Herrington, National Schools Commissioner
Leora Cruddas CBE, CEO, Confederation of School Trusts
Raymond Friel OBE, CEO, Caritas Social Action Network
Paul Barber, Director, Catholic Education Service
Christine Fischer, Assistant Director & Head of Legal, Catholic Education Service
