

Diocese of Shrewsbury

Department of Education

RE Coordinator Guidance, 2022-23

Where we were	From September 2022	RECD 2022
AT1 Learning about Religion	Called Understand Refer to Understand in planning and teaching	Specific outcomes for Understand will be given for each Branch for each year group Age-related Standards will sit behind these
AT2 Learning from Religion	Called Respond Refer to Respond in planning and teaching NB: Respond is invitational and must not form part of assessment Evidence that Respond is present in RE will be required	Specific outcomes for Respond will be given for each Branch for each year group
N/A	Discern – the ability to judge wisely what is good and true Begin to refer to Discern in planning and teaching Use driver words/phrase from RECD 2022 and apply to content from WTL Discern follows from a good grounding of Understand	Specific outcomes for Discern will be given for each Branch for each year group Age-related Standards will sit behind these
I can statements/ Levels	Whether using levels/'I can' statements or referring to Age-related Standards OR a combination of the two, refer to the Progression Grids and the Understand grids to ensure learning is progressive from EYFS to Y6 and offers opportunities for deep understanding NB: How and Why are very important questions, especially in RE	RECD has Expected Outcomes for every year group and every Branch to inform planning, teaching, and assessing.
Formal assessment of AT1 & AT2 during terms 1, 3, 5 (2021/2022) THEN 2, 4, 6 (2022/2023)	Formal assessment of Understand during terms 2, 4, 6 Begin to formally assess Discern during terms 2, 4, 6	To be reviewed for RECD 2022 content
WTL Original edition	WTL Revised edition	TBC Full compliance with RECD 2022 by September 2025
Collective Worship	Reference Prayer and Liturgy in documents, policies, and language. Ensure staff are clear when are offering opportunities for prayer, and liturgical prayer in particular	Further training will be offered when the final Prayer and Liturgy Directory is published