

Diocese of Shrewsbury: Compliance 2025-26

Primary:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>RE taught for a specified portion of each repeating cycle of the regular school timetable in each year of compulsory schooling - the amount of time must constitute at least 10% of this repeating cycle</li> <li>Any collapsed timetable days would be in addition to the regular requirement for each timetable cycle and must not replace it</li> <li>RE lessons to be compliant with the 2012 RECD/2023 RED</li> </ul>	Are you fully compliant with the general norms for religious education laid down by the Bishops' Conference?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>RE lessons to follow The Vine and the Branches scheme</li> <li>RSHE scheme to be Journey in Love or Life to the Full</li> <li>PSHE to be delivered through a Catholic lens (amending any additional resources used as appropriate)</li> <li>Adherence to policies: Diocesan Admissions Policy</li> </ul>	Are you fully compliant with any additional requirements of Bishop Mark?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fully responded to the Areas for Improvement identified in the previous Catholic school inspection (or equivalent predecessor inspection) if still inspected under the new CSI framework</li> </ul>	Have you fully responded to the Areas for Improvement identified in the previous S48 inspection?

NB: it is Bishop Mark's wish that the Chair and the Vice Chair be foundation governors

NB: schools will be expected to implement all CES workplace policies as soon as possible

Secondary:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>RE taught for a specified portion of each repeating cycle of the regular school timetable in each year of compulsory schooling - the amount of time must constitute at least 10% of this repeating cycle at KS3 and 4, and 5% at KS5</li> <li>Any collapsed timetable days would be in addition to the regular requirement for each timetable cycle and must not replace it</li> <li>RE lessons to be compliant with the 2023 RED</li> </ul>	Are you fully compliant with the general norms for religious education laid down by the Bishops' Conference?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>GCSE course 50% Catholic Christianity and 25% Judaism</li> <li>Core RE to be guided by CBCEW document for 14-19 RE in Catholic schools and colleges: Faith and Science, Church and State, Religious Diversity and Dialogue NB: Core RE may be aligned with the 16-19 RED draft.</li> </ul>	Expectations of the Bishops' Conference
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>RSHE scheme to be Life to the Full</li> </ul>	Are you fully compliant with any additional

Diocese of Shrewsbury: Compliance 2024-25

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• PSHE to be delivered through a Catholic lens (amending any additional resources used as appropriate)</li> <li>• Adherence to policies: Diocesan Admissions Policy</li> </ul>	requirements of Bishop Mark?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Fully responded to the Areas for Improvement identified in the previous Catholic school inspection (or equivalent predecessor inspection) if still inspected under the new CSI framework</li> </ul>	Have you fully responded to the Areas for Improvement identified in the previous S48 inspection?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• GCSE pupil entries</li> </ul>	Does RE have parity with other core subjects?

NB: it is Bishop Mark's wish that the Chair and the Vice Chair be foundation governors

NB: schools will be expected to implement all CES workplace policies as soon as possible